The longest hour is always just before the dawn.

I told you to take care of that before the game.

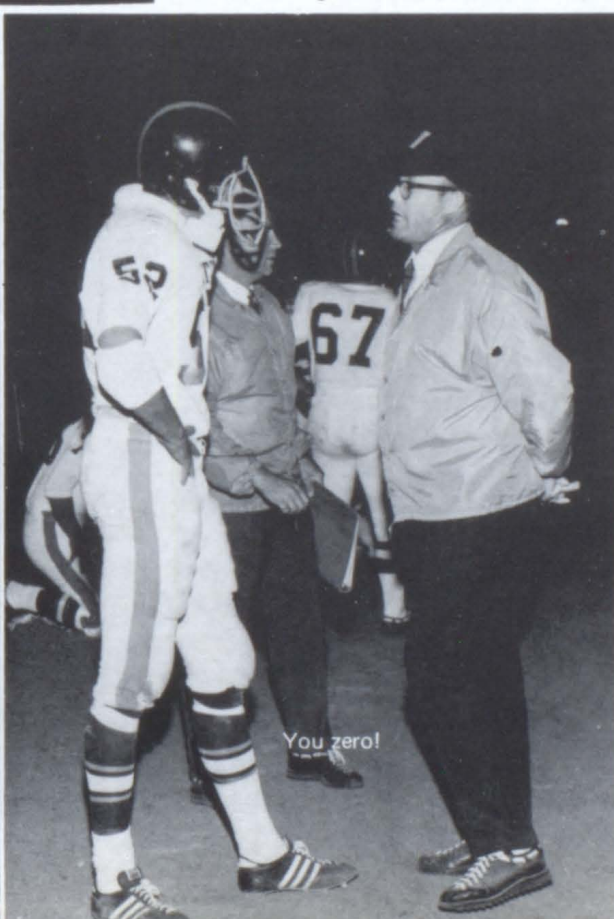

You gotta love it.

This year we are proud to dedicate the yearbook to Coach Jim Ingram. We feel that he has contributed a great deal while teaching at Washington, but last year he really came through by winning an all out championship. That same year he was chosen to represent Alameda County as head coach in the A Alameda—Contra Costa all star game.

We feel he's done a lot for the students not only as coach, but also as a friend and teacher. So to you, Coach Ingram, we dedicate this yearbook.

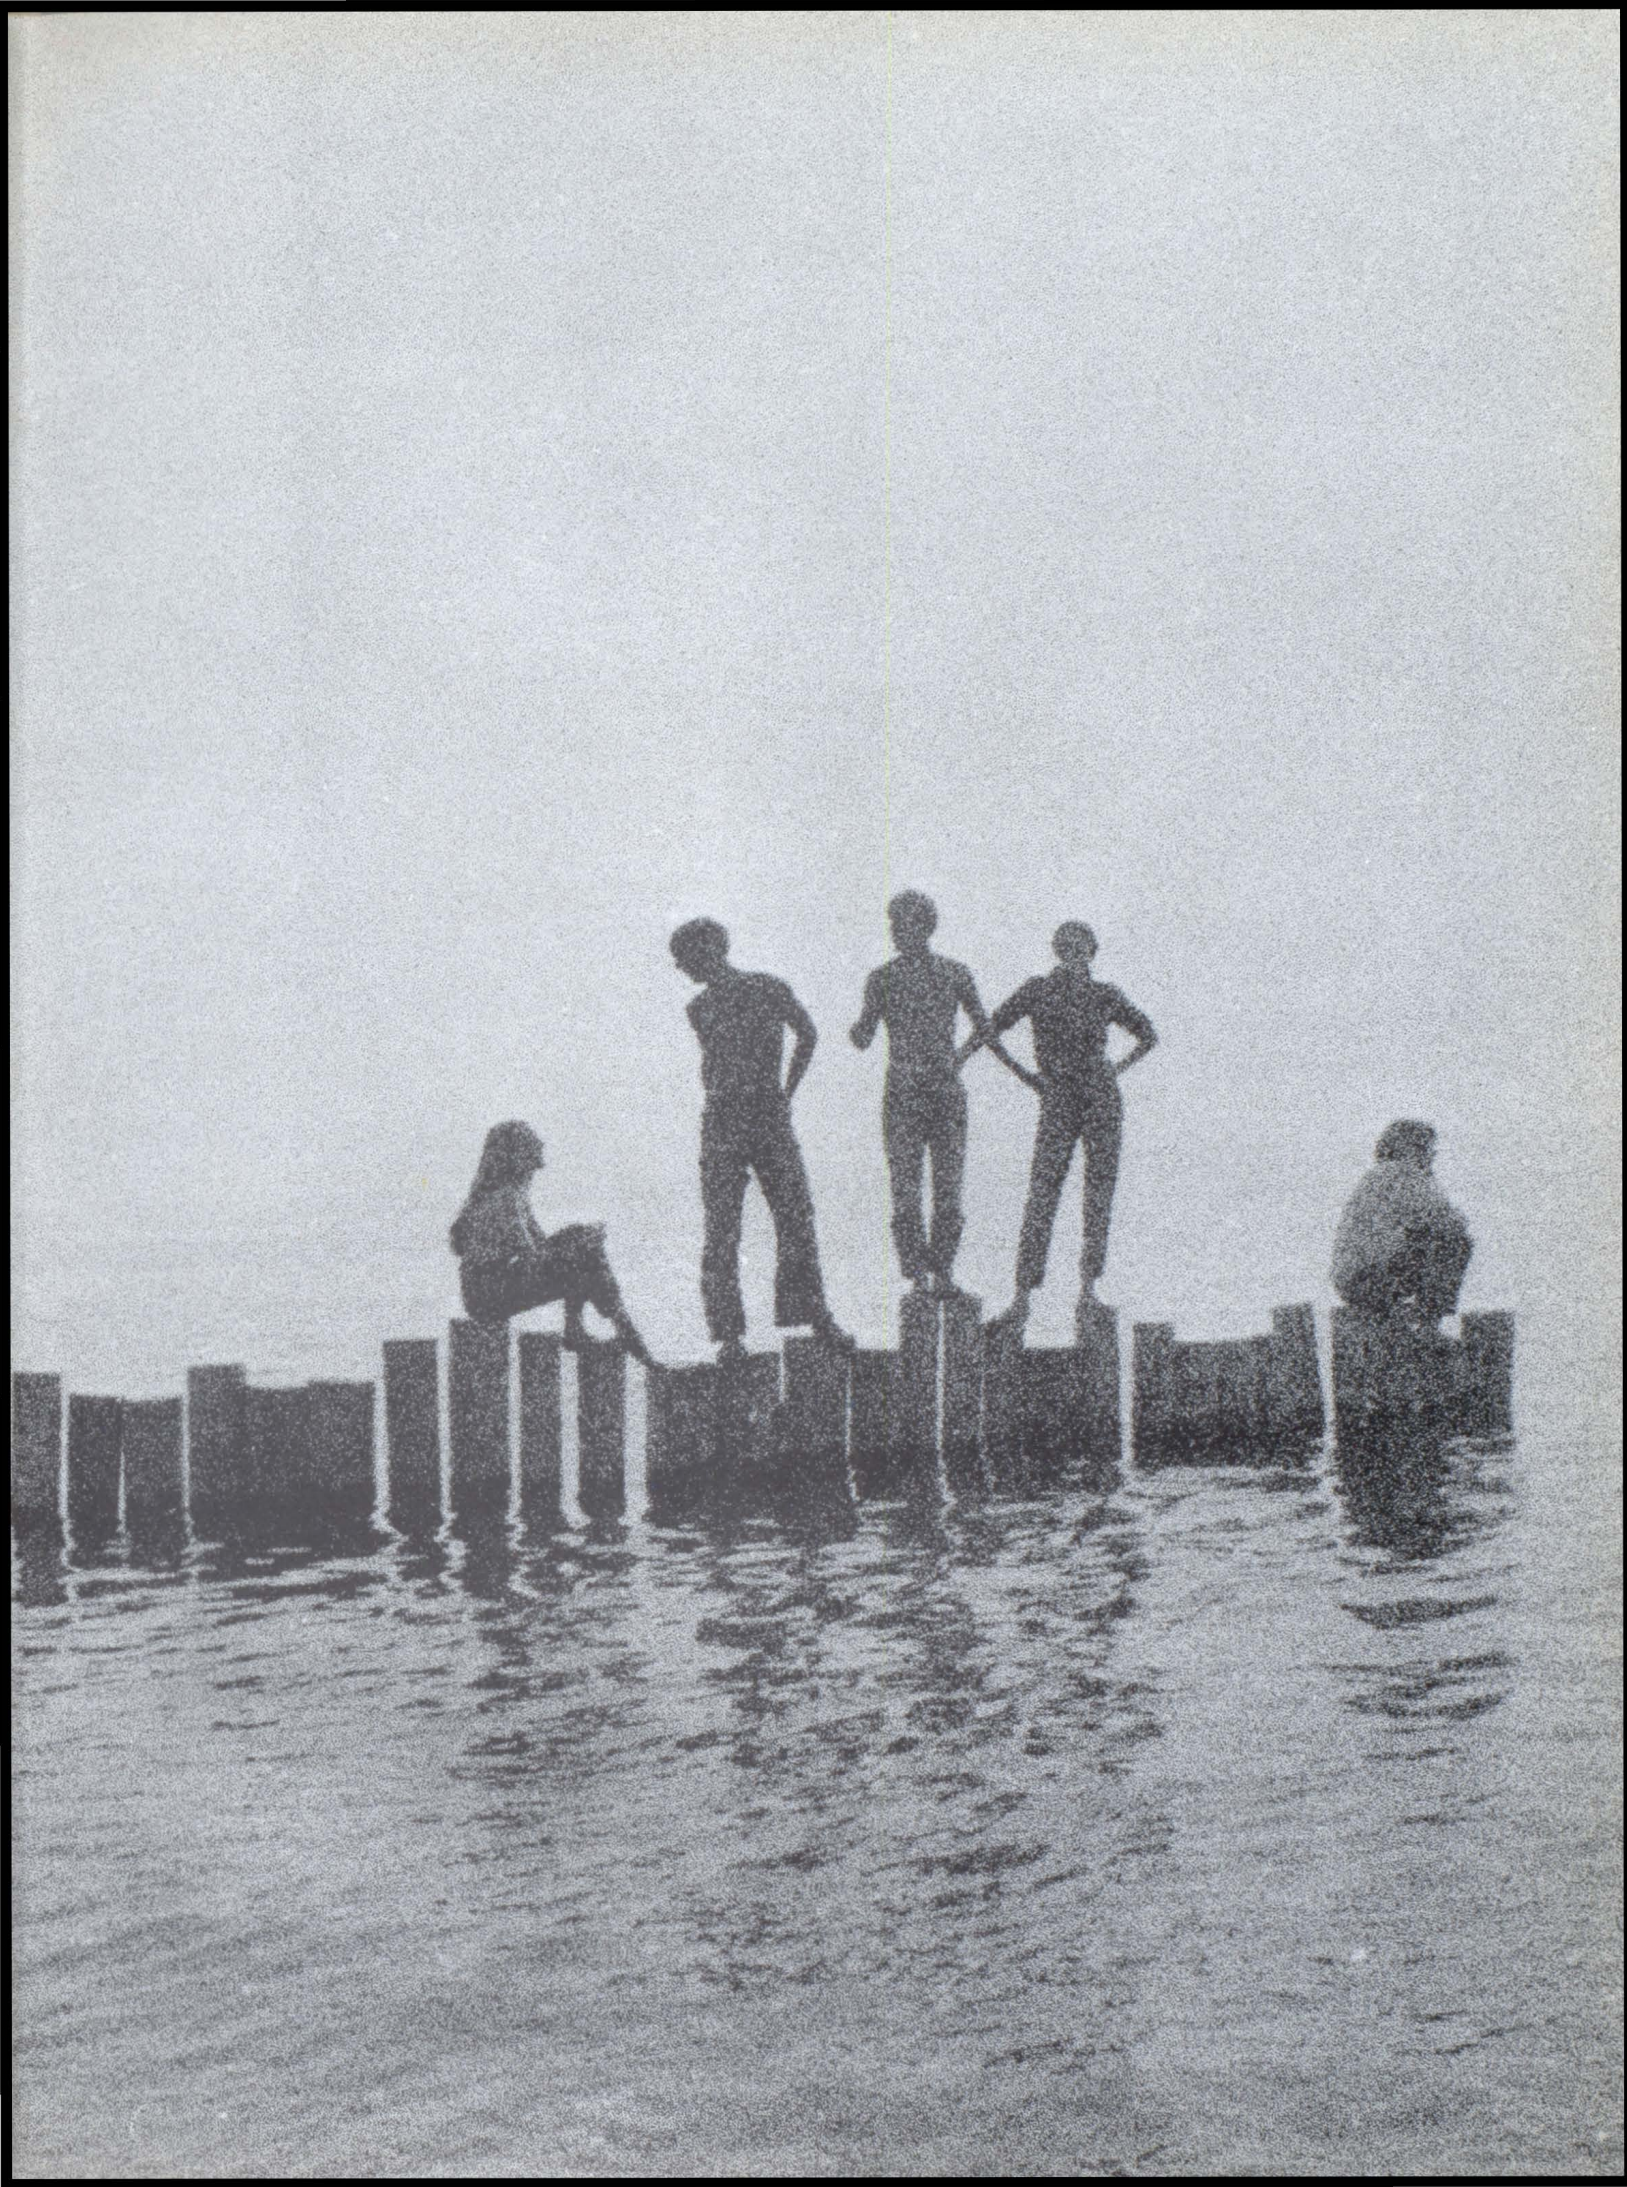

Is the marching band ever gonna get off the field?

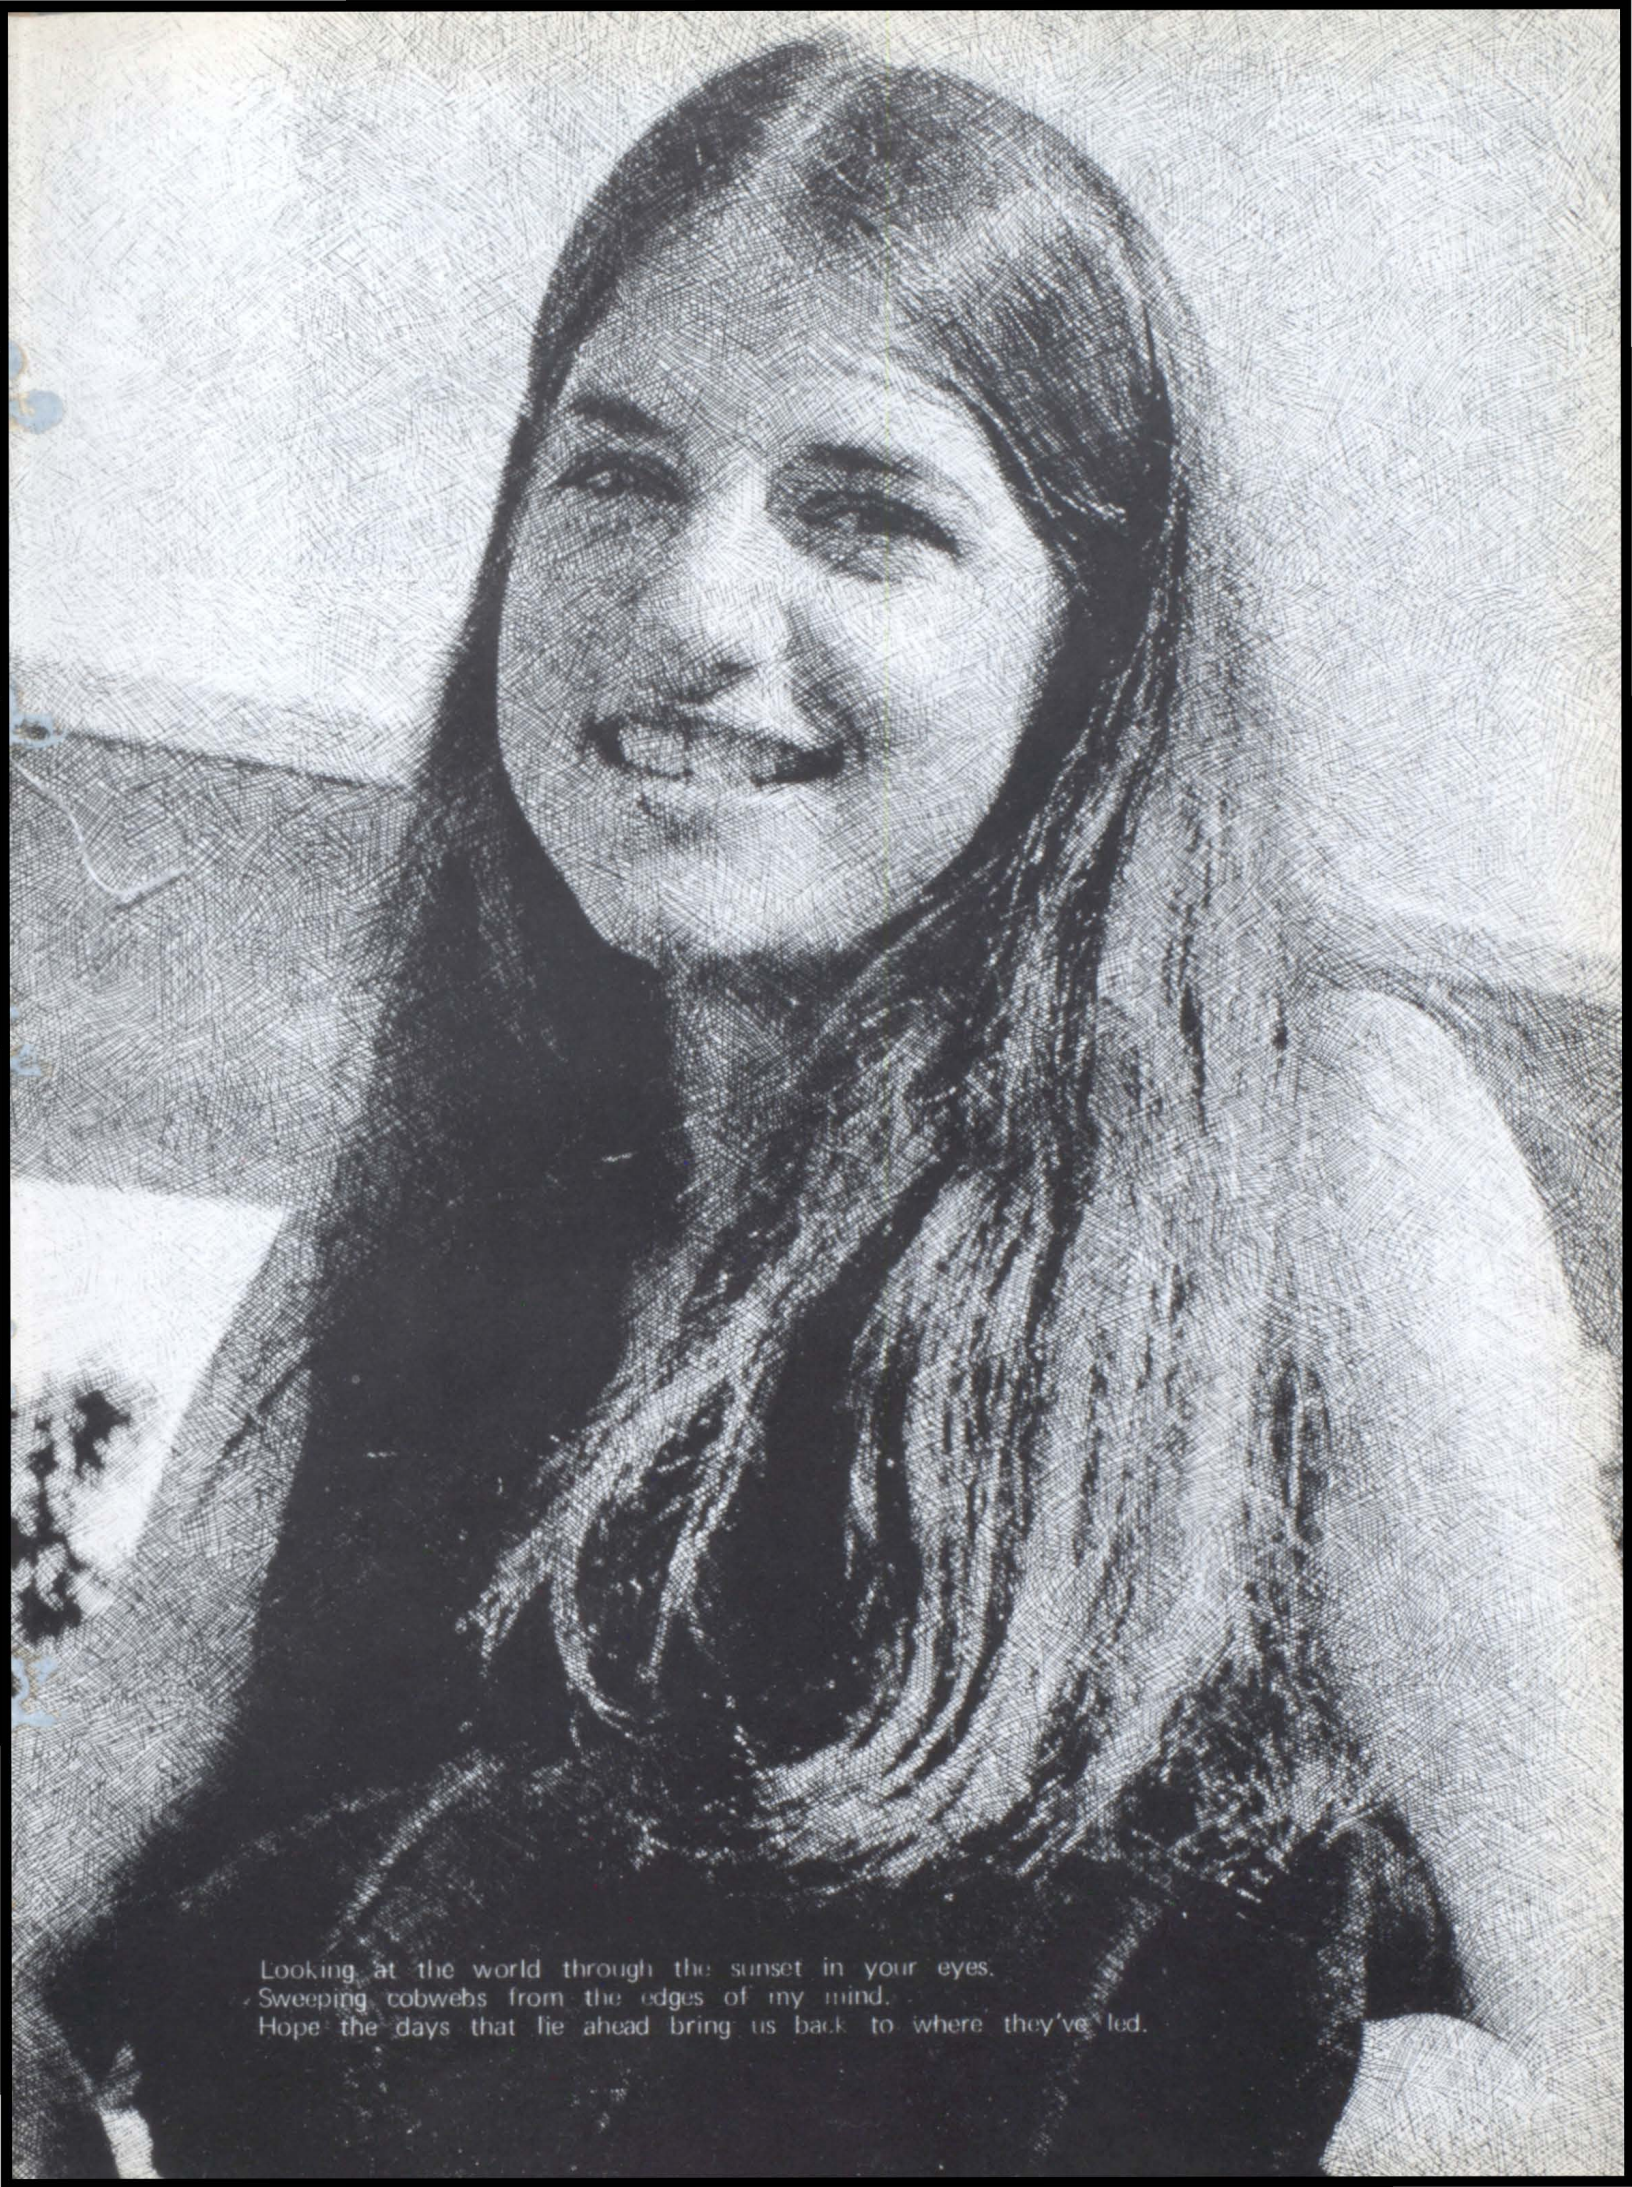

You zero!

SO-LO-LO

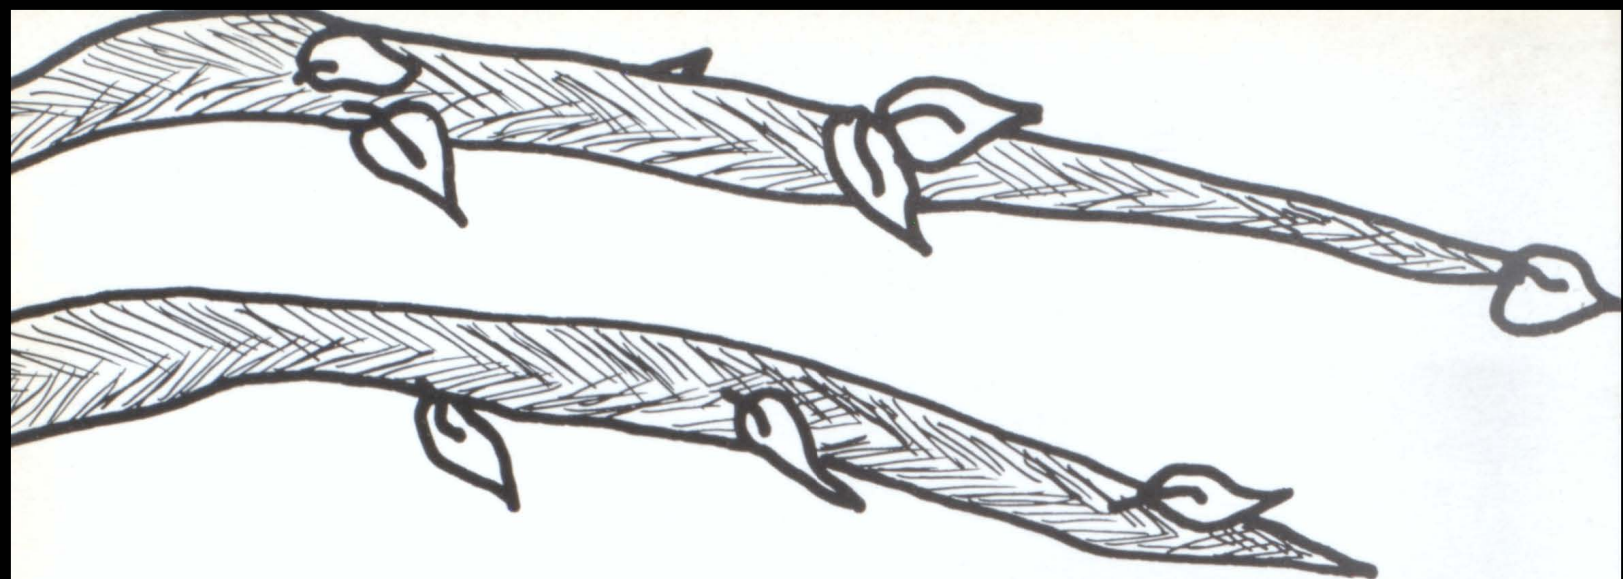

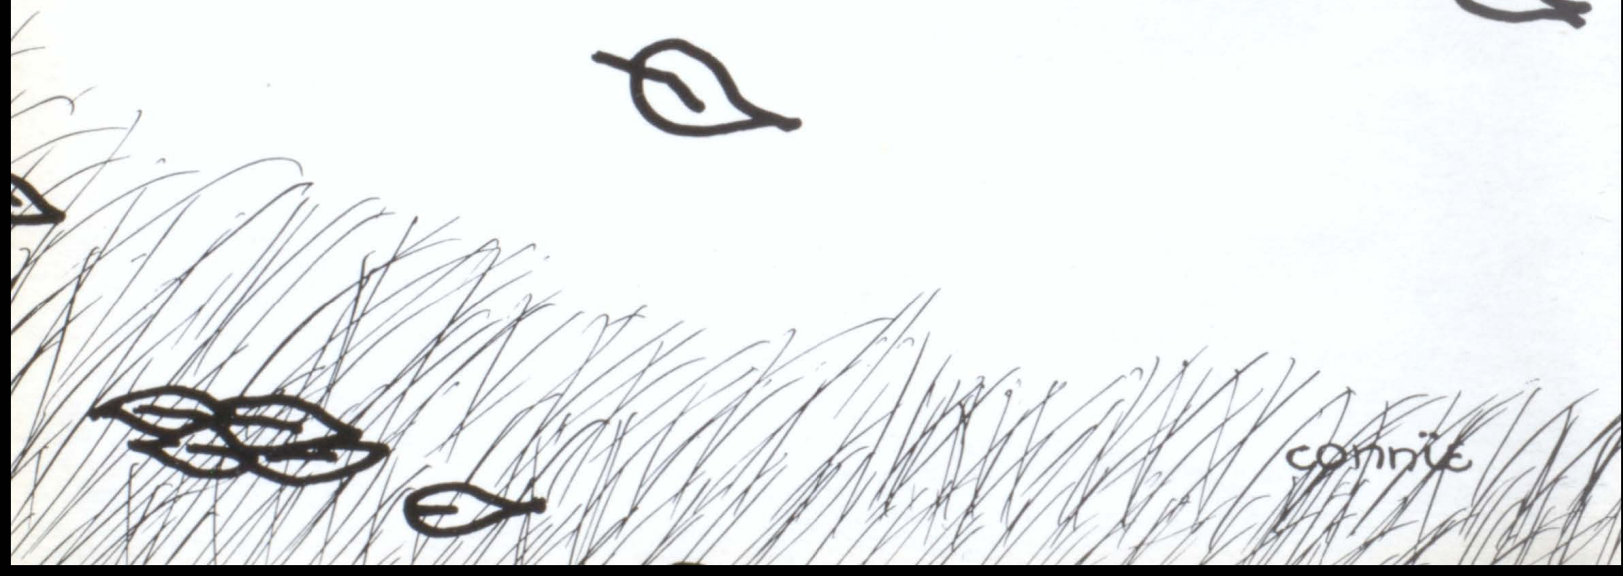

Looking at the world through the sunset in your eyes.
Sweeping cobwebs from the edges of my mind.
Hope the days that lie ahead bring us back to where they've led.

Freshmen—First and scared, but definitely impressive.

SPIRIT—an enduring pride within that can't be suppressed... the excitement of games and victory... a need to belong, to unite as the "Huskies" of WHS.

Seniors—putting extra effort into their last and final Senior Victory.

Sophomores—building the spirit of the Husky by knocking down the Colt.

Juniors—painting and practicing only to wake up and find... RAIN.

Bo Jensen

This year Washington welcomed four foreign exchange students. Hadi Morshed comes from the capital of Iran, Tehran. He came to Fremont through the A.F.S. Program here at W.H.S. He is a soccer player and last year became the junior champion in tennis in Iran Bo Jensen of Randers, Denmark came to U.S. Through Youth for Understanding program. He has one brother and two sisters, and is on Washington's soccer team. Bo likes Fremont weather, but dislikes the disbelief adults have in young people. "Denmark doesn't have stupid things for instance dress-code." . . . Stefan Tönjes is staying with junior, Jon Parker. He is enjoying his year in America under the Youth for Understanding Program. In Germany, his father is a high school teacher. Stefan likes sports and school dances Although Chris Thon, of Narvik, Norway, was only with us a short while, many of us missed him when left.

the Shoemaker's Prodigious Wife

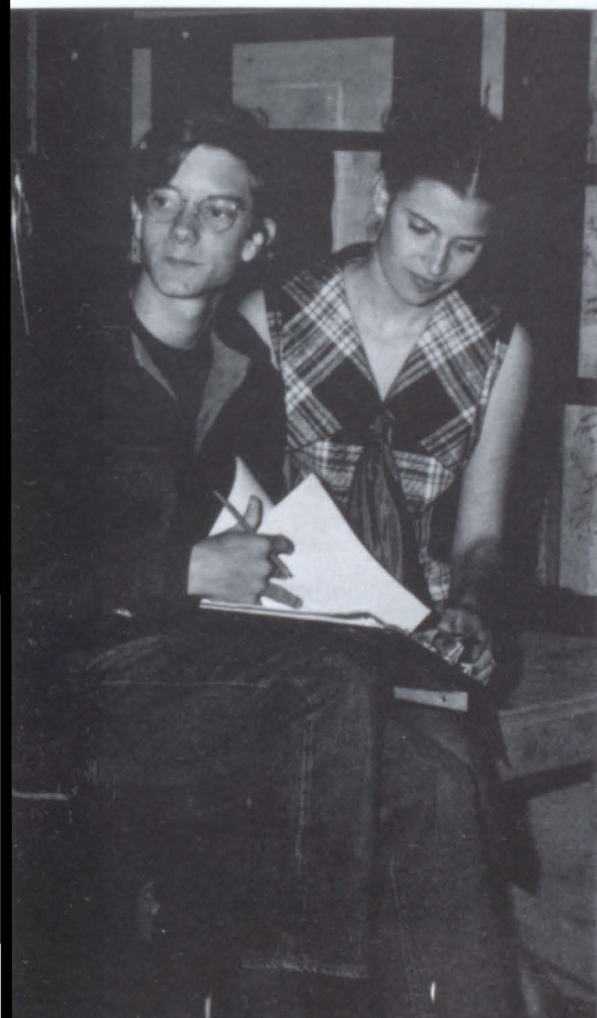

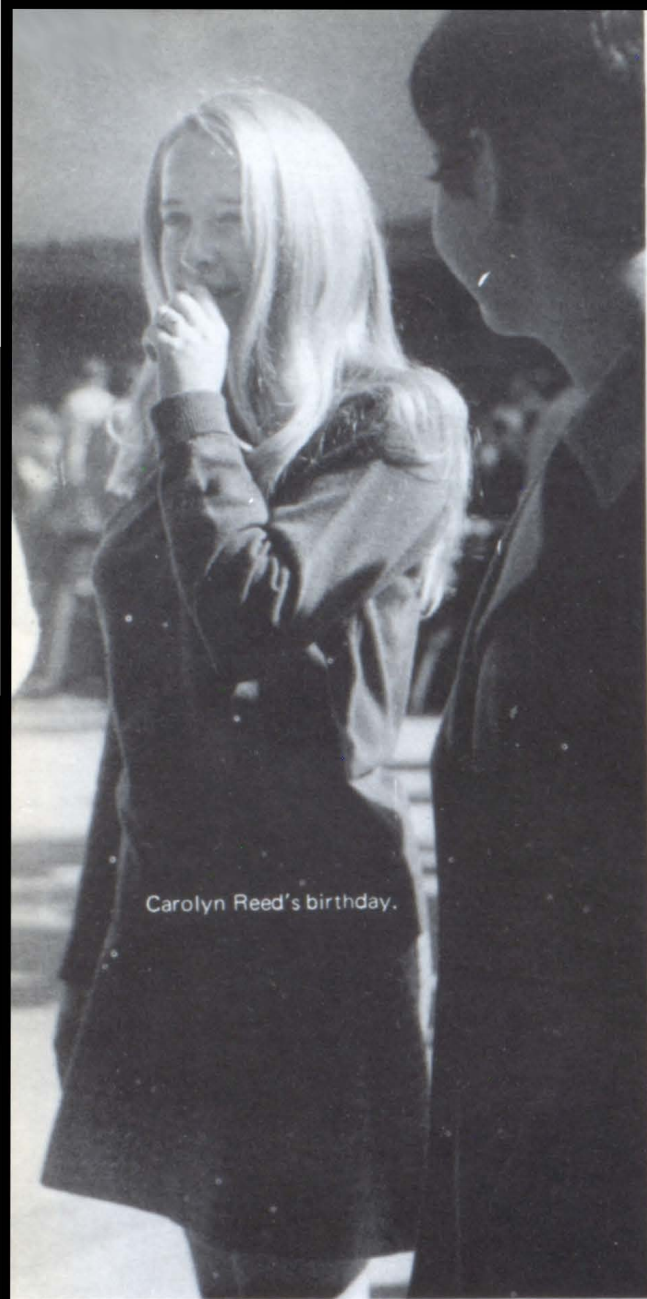

CAST

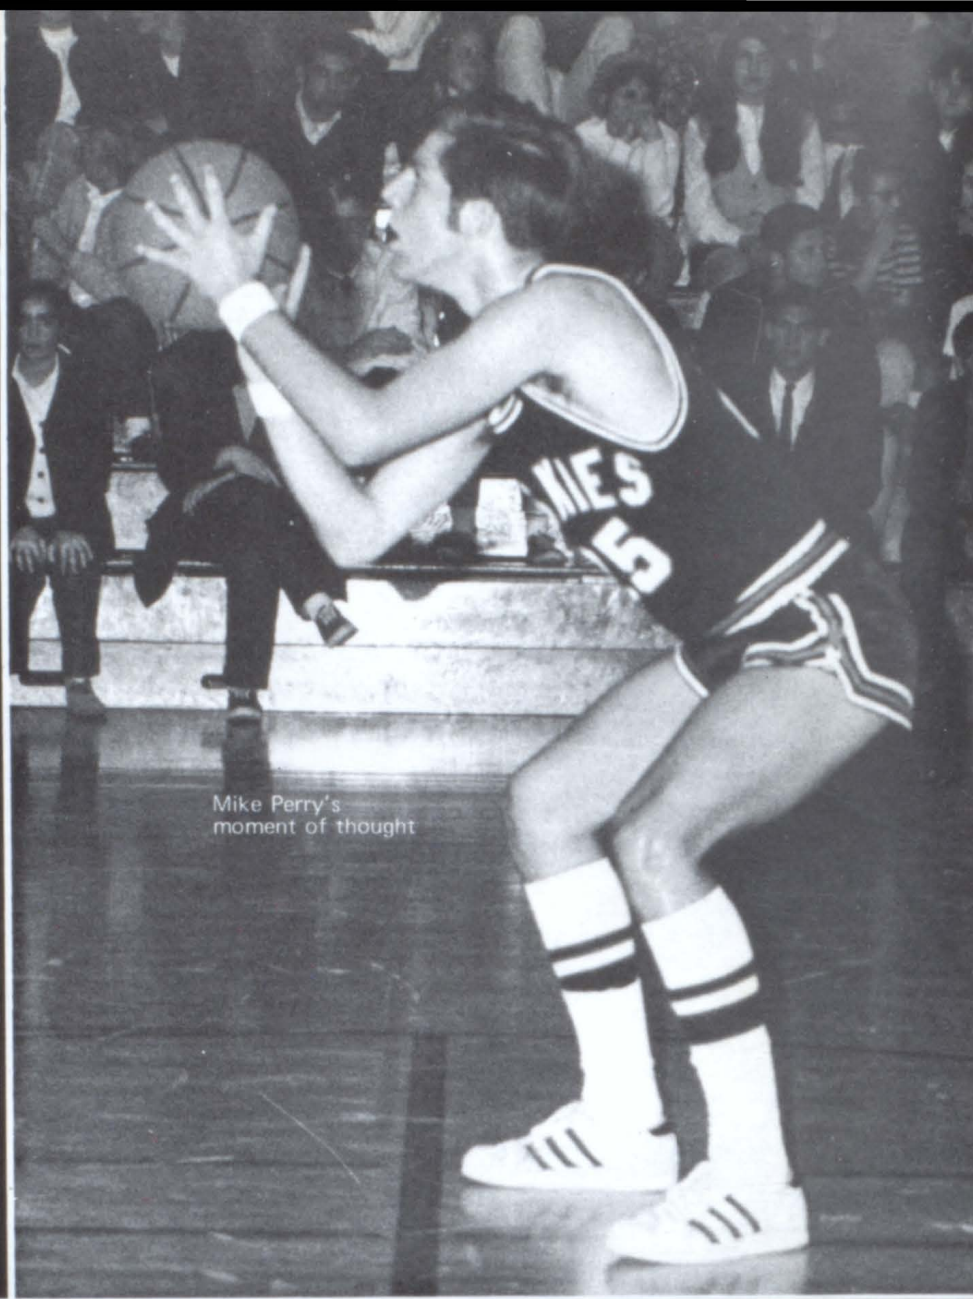

Shoemaker's Wife, Michelle Risinger; Shoemaker, Tom Heskett; The Author, Keith Buehler; Boy, Kim Kennon; Youths, Kevin Nelson, Larry Voellger; Don Beackbird, John Alvarez; Mayor, Jim Canter; Neighbors, Debbie Hightower, Claudia Barr, Barbara Sherwood, Mary Brady, Snadra Caminala, Terry MacLeod, Grace Davis, John Deering.

The play is set in a Spanish peasant scene. It is a well-known comic plot, in which a young, flirtatious girl marries a crusty old husband. Her flirtations and his jealousy are fed by the gossip of the neighbors. So the Shoemaker leaves, and the wife is courted by the town swains. When her husband returns (in disguise), she declares her love for only him—and then shouts at him for leaving!

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Senior Advisors Mrs. Ballard and Mrs. Kneisley

It has been my pleasure to serve your class as your advisor for two years. In an official capacity such as this I have seen your failures, but more importantly I have learned to know you as individuals. It is difficult for me to address your whole class when I could say so many things to you individually. To wish you good will for your future seems highly inadequate and routine considering my feelings for your class. I can only say that as a group and as individual people you have made my years at Washington the most meaningful in my teaching experience and I will miss your friendliness and warmth terribly.

Service is a big part of activities that go on here at Washington, services performed by many students. So many that to honor them it would take a whole book. Since this is not possible The Husky Award Committee has chosen ten seniors for their outstanding four years of service to the Student Body, the school, and the Class of 1970.

The background of the page is a stylized, high-contrast illustration in shades of gray. It features several faces with large, expressive eyes and open mouths, some appearing to be shouting or singing. Interspersed among the faces are hands with long, pointed fingers, some reaching upwards. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century graphic design or pop art.
